

California State University, Stanislaus
2/AS/01/FBAC - Shared Governance/Open Budgeting

RESOLVED, that effective April 1, 2001, the CSU Stanislaus administration will expend moneys that come from special accounts or special sources (e.g., the Interest Account, the Pepsi Fund, new income that might derive from future facilities such as the Faculty Development Center or a large athletic facility, or other non-state unrestricted funds) only after consultation with the faculty as represented by the Senate Executive Committee and/or the Faculty Budget Advisory Committee.

RATIONALE. California State University, Stanislaus, as part of the California State University, has committed itself to an administration of shared governance and open budgeting. Shared governance and open budgeting assume close cooperation between the administration and the instructional faculty in all matters of policy and implementation affecting the University at large. As such, it is imperative that all funds be expended in accordance with the shared governance/open budgeting process.
